Call for new Arts Advisory Council Members

The Capital Regional District (CRD) is seeking individuals to serve on the CRD Arts and Culture Support Service's Arts Advisory Council (AAC). The AAC is a volunteer group that adjudicates arts funding programs and provides advice to the CRD Arts Commission (AC) on issues relating to arts in the region as part of the CRD Arts & Culture Support Service. We encourage applicants of all abilities, gender identities and expressions, sexual orientations, racialized identities and/or other lived experiences that reflect the diversity of the capital region.

Closing Date: Tuesday, May 31, 2022 at 4:30pm

About CRD Arts & Culture Support Service

The CRD Arts & Culture Support Service administers five funding programs that support not-for-profit arts organizations and is composed of CRD staff and two committees: the Arts Commission (AC) and the Arts Advisory Council (AAC).

Funding programs include Operating, Equity, IDEA and Incubator Grants (one intake per year) and Project Grants, (two intakes per year). The CRD is unable to fund individuals or businesses and only funds not-for-profit organizations in participating municipalities: Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay, Esquimalt, Metchosin, Highlands, View Royal, Sooke and Southern Gulf Islands. Read more about the funding programs.

The Arts Commission (AC) is comprised of elected representatives from each of the participating municipalities and is responsible for support and development of arts in the region through:

- the oversight of operational and project support to arts organizations,
- the consideration of policies aimed at creating an environment conducive to a wide range of arts activities,
- and the approval of overall CRD Arts and Culture Support Service budget.

The Role of the Art Advisory Council (AAC)

The AAC is a volunteer council appointed by the Arts Commission and consisting of up to twelve members. Established by CRD Bylaw 2973, the AAC mandate includes:

- providing advice to the AC on policies to foster and promote the arts through support of the arts in the community, public awareness of and involvement in the arts, the creation, exhibition and performance of the artistic works, and the development of artistic and other requisite skills,
- adjudicating grant applications and provides recommendations to the AC for final approval.

2022 initiatives include continuing to apply an Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) lens to CRD Arts & Culture Support Service funding programs through the EDI Implementation Framework.

Time Commitment

Meetings are typically held at 625 Fisgard St, Victoria and on Zoom, as a hybrid format.

The typical annual schedule includes:

- regular meetings, typically held on the first Tuesday evening of each month with the exception of July, August and December,
- a Saturday meeting replacing the regular meeting in November, for review of Operating grants,
- additional adjudication meetings for Project, Equity, IDEA and Incubator grants in the spring, typically held in the evening,
- and occasional special meetings at the call of the Chair.

Qualifications

AAC membership reflects a wide range of experiences and interests in the arts as well as other professions and life experiences. Member expertise may include training and experience in an arts discipline or other occupation including law, business, accounting, or administration, as well as policy development, public sector funding, grant adjudication, finance, governance, development or other related fields. Some understanding or familiarity with the non-profit arts sector, or non-profit organizations in general, is preferred.

Eligibility

- Members must live in the capital region.
- If you are a member of the board of directors, employee, regular contractor, or have a fiduciary duty to an organization applying for CRD Arts & Culture Support Service funding, you are not eligible to be appointed to the AAC.

Selection and appointment

Applications are reviewed according to provisions within CRD Bylaw 2973 and prospective appointees are selected based on the current needs of the Council. Final approval and appointments are made by the AC. Initial appointments are for one year with the possibility of reappointment up to a maximum of eight years.
