

Statement of Purpose

IDEA (Innovate, Develop, Experiment, Access) Grants is a program of the CRD Arts & Culture Support Service. It is a flexible, small-awards program designed to respond to one-time opportunities and to encourage new, innovative or developmental arts projects and events. IDEA Grants are intended to encourage and support arts participation by organizations that are not eligible for other CRD Arts & Culture Support Service programs.

Commitment to Equity

The CRD Arts & Culture Support Service acknowledges the cultural and geographic diversity of the capital region. The CRD Arts & Culture Support Service recognizes that artistic practice exists within diverse and specific cultural contexts and that systemic discrimination has created unequal conditions – including financial resource distribution – that prevent many equity-seeking groups from fulfilling their cultural capacity and being meaningfully engaged in the arts. Equity-seeking groups may include, but are not limited to, those that identify as First Nations, Inuit and Métis, racialized, Deaf, LGBTQ2+, and/or disabled. The CRD Arts and Culture Support Service is committed to taking actions to make progress towards building an arts sector that equitably engages everyone.

The CRD Arts & Culture Support Service continues to prioritize continuous learning about how equity, diversity, inclusion, access, and cultural self-determination can inform its programs and policies, understanding that these concepts are not a static set of goals, but rather an evolving journey.
