

Statement of Purpose

Projects, Series & Extended Programming Grants (Project Grants) provide support for emerging or established arts organizations to produce or present one-time projects, a short series of events, or extended programming, taking place over a period of time leading up to the next year's project grant deadlines. Project Grants are not available to organizations receiving assistance through the CRD Annual or Multi-year Operating Grant program.

Project Grant assistance acknowledges that, in order for the arts to remain accessible to the region's audiences and participants, they require an investment of public sector funds. Through an investment in our arts organizations and institutions, the CRD is contributing to the development of a healthy, diverse and vibrant community.

Project Grants provide support to arts organizations of regional significance whose primary mandate is public programming in the arts. The CRD Arts & Culture Support Service is funded by the following jurisdictions: Saanich, Victoria, Oak Bay, Esquimalt, View Royal, Highlands, Metchosin, Sooke, Southern Gulf Islands.

Eligibility

Applicants that have not previously received a Project Grant should contact the Arts & Culture Support Service office prior to application to confirm eligibility and discuss their proposal.

Applicant organizations must:

1. be a not-for-profit society registered in British Columbia.
2. have programming in the arts as their primary mandate and purpose.
3. have been active for at least six months prior to the application deadline.
4. have an active Board of Directors; voting members of the Board must not receive remuneration of any kind from the applicant organization.

6. have a project that takes place within the contributing jurisdictions.

Organizations having outstanding or incomplete CRD Project Grants may be eligible to apply at the discretion of the Manager of the Arts & Culture Support Service. Payment of any additional Project Grant awards will be conditional upon receipt of a satisfactory Final Report on the outstanding project.

Commitment to Equity

The CRD Arts & Culture Support Service acknowledges the cultural and geographic diversity of the capital region. The CRD Arts & Culture Support Service recognizes that artistic practice exists within diverse and specific cultural contexts and that systemic discrimination has created unequal conditions – including financial resource distribution – that prevent many equity-seeking groups from fulfilling their cultural capacity and being meaningfully engaged in the arts. Equity-seeking groups may include, but are not limited to, those that identify as First Nations, Inuit and Métis, racialized, Deaf, LGBTQ2+, and/or disabled. The CRD Arts and Culture Support Service is committed to taking actions to make progress towards building an arts sector that equitably engages everyone.

The CRD Arts & Culture Support Service continues to prioritize continuous learning about how equity, diversity, inclusion, access, and cultural self-determination can inform its programs and policies, understanding that these concepts are not a static set of goals, but rather an evolving journey.
