

Construction & Demolition Waste

For The Do-It-Yourselfer

Hazardous materials can come in many forms inside your home. For example, depending on the age of your home, there could be lead paint on your walls, asbestos in your flooring, PCB's in your light fixtures or mercury in your thermostat. To reduce risk of exposure to you and your family use the flow chart below and learn how to protect yourself.

